

ECO Camp 2011

Rain

Rain or shine the camp will be held.

Activities

Campers will participate in activities relating to the environment: art, science, music, games, and storytelling each day.

Notification

Every camper will receive information in the mail to confirm camp placement. The camp will be filled on a first come basis. Names will be placed on a camp list when a completed form and check are received. If you have questions, please call 63CLEAN.

T-Shirts

A camp T-shirt is provided with the registration fee. Please mark the registration form with your child's size.

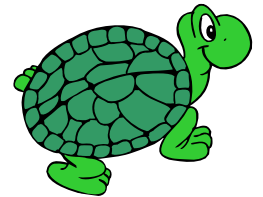

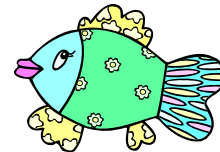

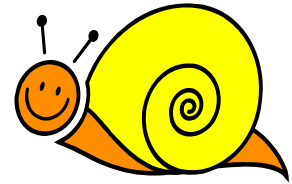

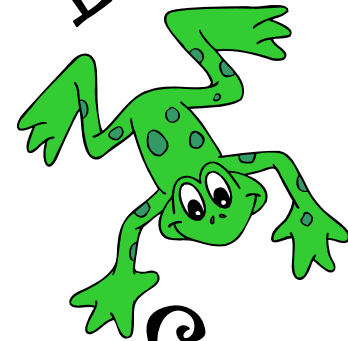

Drop-Off and Pick-Up

On the first day please help your child check in. After the first day, parents may drop-off their children in the front of First Presbyterian Church into the care of their child's counselor. Children will be waiting out front for pick-up at noon.

All the workers are volunteers, so please be prompt!

Consent, Medical Authorization & Release

I consent to my child's participation in ECO CAMP 2011 (the "Program") sponsored by Angelina Beautiful/ Clean. In case of emergency, I consent to and authorize any and all medical treatment of my child deemed necessary and appropriate by the adult volunteers conducting the program, including hospitalization, injection, anesthesia or surgery by physicians chosen by such adults. I release, hold harmless and agree to indemnify Angelina Beautiful/ Clean, the members of its governing board, officers, employees and volunteers for any and all claims and cost of investigation and defense of claims, brought by me, or by anyone else on behalf of my child, resulting from my child's participation in the program.

I understand that neither First Presbyterian Church nor Angelina Beautiful/Clean maintains any insurance coverage that will pay for any medical expenses should my child require medical attention during the program on the Church's grounds.

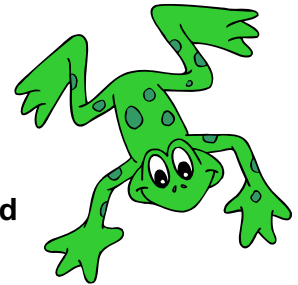

I further understand that First Presbyterian Church is not responsible for the activities or conduct of ECO CAMP 2011. I release, hold harmless, and agree to indemnify the Church, the members of its governing boards, officers, members and clergy of the same, for any and all claims, and cost of investigation and defense of claims, brought by me, or by anyone else on behalf of my child, resulting from my child's participation in the program.
